About the Author

Jessica Thornsby Jessica Thornsby studied poetry, prose, and scriptwriting at Bolton University before discovering the world of open source and technical writing, and has never looked back since. Today, she is a technical writer and full-time Android enthusiast residing in sunny Sheffield, England. She enjoys writing about rooting and flashing mobile devices, Java, Eclipse, and all things Android and Google. She is also the co-author of iWork: The Missing Manual. When not wordsmithing about technology and obsessing over the latest Android developments, she keeps a blog about her local food scene and writes about looking after exotic pets. On the rare occasions that she's dragged away from her computer, she enjoys beer gardens, curry houses, the great British seaside, scary movies, and spending lots of time with her house rabbits and chinchillas.
