Editorial Review

Review

"The authors use a critical perspective to help us see fundamental concepts and issues in fundamentally different ways." Walter Nord, Distinguished University Professor, University of South Florida, USA.

"The Management and Organization book is a must read for anyone doing critical management studies. It is well written with important challenges to status quo modernist managerialist thinking. A great read for serious students of management and organization studies."-- David M. Boje, Bank of America Endowed Professor of Management, New Mexico State University, USA

From 1st edition:

'I like the text very much. It contains some excellent critical material which students would otherwise not come across without spending serious time in the library...The style is engaging...[and it has] impressive breadth of coverage.' - Dr Martin Corbett, Warwick Business School

'Management and Organization: A Critical Text is well written, stimulating and thought provoking...Each chapter has been comprehensively researched and each topic thoroughly analysed and discussed.' - Associate Professor Michael Knowles, Monash University, Australia

'This book is a comprehensive resource for both students and teachers of critical management.... The tone and the style of writing in this book are upbeat, engaging and refreshing; and the scholarly nature of the project is beyond doubt.' - Mihaela Keleman, Leadership
